

Communities By Design, a nonprofit 501c(3) training and education organization, in cooperation with the City of Redwood City,
is pleased to present:

The Forum at Redwood City

A CONTINUING CONVERSATION ON CITY DESIGN

Little Fox Theatre
2209 Broadway,
Redwood City

Fee for the Forum: $10 (checks or cash, payable at the door)

The event will be followed by an optional, no-host dinner.

For more information, please contact Dan Zack, City of Redwood City, at (650) 780-7363 or DZack@redwoodcity.org

Please mark your calendars for future Forums!

The Forum at Redwood City will be held on the first Wednesday of the month at 6:00pm.

Please note: Due to state regulations, attendance at the Little Fox Theatre is limited to persons over 21.

The next in this exciting series will focus on

Understanding Civic Art: The Urban Design of "Everything Else"

Featuring the talented urban designer

Gregory Tung
Principal, Freedman Tung and Bottomley,
San Francisco

The "set pieces" of benches, lampposts, walls, bridges, and landmarks serve as both the backgrounds and foregrounds of our communities. Join us for a personal look at how well-designed "civic art" can be an important part of making our neighborhoods and cities more unique and livable.

Wednesday, December 7, 2005
6:00 — 7:45pm

Doors open at 5:30pm
Coffee and no-host bar available

Please note: John Anderson of New Urban Builders will be speaking at the Forum on January 4, 2006 on "Creating Livable Communities: A Developer's Perspective."