

Communities By Design, a nonprofit 501c(3) training and education organization, in cooperation with the City of Redwood City, is pleased to present:

The Forum at Redwood City

A CONTINUING CONVERSATION ON CITY DESIGN

Little Fox Theatre
2209 Broadway,
Redwood City

Fee for the Forum: $10 (checks or cash,
payable at the door)

The event will be followed by an optional,
no-host dinner.

For more information,
please contact Dan Zack, City of Redwood City, at (650) 780-7363 or DZack@redwoodcity.org

Please mark your calendars for future Forums!

The Forum at Redwood City
will be held on the first Wednesday of the month at 6:00pm.

Please note: Due to state regulations, attendance at the Little Fox Theatre is limited to persons over 21.

The next in this exciting series will focus on

Using the Dark Arts of Development to Create Great Places: A Practitioner's Guide

Featuring the innovative developer

John Anderson

V.P. Planning & Design, New Urban Builders, Inc., Chico, CA

Ever wonder why developers keep building sprawl? Why do so many of them put a garage or a parking in front of a perfectly good building? Wouldn't infill be cheaper to build than new greenfield construction? For answers to these and other compelling questions, join us at the first Forum of the New Year.

Wednesday, January 4, 2006
6:00 — 7:45pm

Doors open at 5:30pm

No-host bar available

Please note: The Forum will be held on the first Wednesday of each month through May 2006.