

Communities By Design, a nonprofit 501c(3) training and education organization, in cooperation with the City of Redwood City, is pleased to present:

The Forum at Redwood City

A CONTINUING CONVERSATION ON CITY DESIGN

Little Fox Theatre
2209 Broadway,
Redwood City

Fee for the Forum: $10 (checks or cash, payable at the door)

The event will be followed by an optional, no-host dinner.

For more information, please contact Dan Zack, City of Redwood City, at (650) 780-7363 or DZack@redwoodcity.org

Please mark your calendars for future Forums!

The Forum at Redwood City will be held on the first Wednesday of the month at 6:00pm.

Please note: Due to State regulations, attendance at the Little Fox Theatre is limited to persons over 21.

The next in this exciting series will focus on

The World's Best and Worst Parks

Featuring a leading authority on revitalizing urban space

Fred Kent

Founder and President, Project for Public Spaces, New York

A researcher for William H. Whyte on the Street Life Project, Fred Kent is an internationally recognized expert in placemaking.
He will be addressing why some parks succeed as lively public spaces while other fail, and how we can learn from the missed opportunities of underperforming parks in order to create great public spaces in our own communities.

Wednesday, March 2, 2005
6:00 — 7:45pm

Doors open at 5:30pm
Coffee and no-host bar available

Please note: "The High Cost of Free Parking" will be the topic of the April 6, 2005 Forum.