

Communities By Design, a nonprofit 501c(3) training and education organization, in cooperation with the City of Redwood City, is pleased to present:

The Forum at Redwood City

A CONTINUING CONVERSATION ON CITY DESIGN

Little Fox Theatre
2209 Broadway,
Redwood City

Fee for the Forum: $10 (checks or cash, payable at the door)

The event will be followed by an optional, no-host dinner.

For more information, please contact Dan Zack, City of Redwood City, at
(650) 780-7363 or
DZack@redwoodcity.org

Please mark your calendars for future Forums!

The Forum at Redwood City will be held on the first Wednesday of the month at 6:00pm.

Please note: Due to state regulations, attendance at the Little Fox Theatre is limited to persons over 21.

The next in this exciting series will focus on

The Split-Use Trend: How to Create and Manage a 24/7 Downtown

Featuring a leading authority on entertainment districts

Jim Peters

President, Responsible Hospitality Institute

Split-use districts are the key to making 24/7 downtowns a reality. Mr. Peters, an expert on social and legal trends impacting the hospitality industry, will share his insight into planning, managing and policing entertainment districts that are safe and vibrant places for people to live and socialize.

Wednesday, November 2, 2005 6:00 — 7:45pm

Doors open at 5:30pm
Coffee and no-host bar available

Please note: The Forum will be held on the first Wednesday of each month through May 2006.