

ORDINANCE NO. _____

ORDINANCE AMENDING REDWOOD CITY MUNICIPAL CODE TO ADOPT BY REFERENCE CHAPTER 6.04 OF TITLE 6 OF THE SAN MATEO COUNTY ORDINANCE CODE AS AMENDED ON SEPTEMBER 13, 2005, RELATING TO REGULATIONS FOR ANIMAL CONTROL

The City Council of Redwood City does ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. Amendment of Code. In accordance with the provisions of Section 50022.1 et seq., of the California Government Code, Chapter 5 of the Redwood City Municipal Code entitled "Animals and Fowl" is hereby amended by revising Article 1, Regulations for Animal Control, Section 5.1, County Regulations to adopt, in part, the San Mateo County Ordinance Code pertaining to Animal Control Regulations to read as follows:

"Sec. 5.1 COUNTY REGULATIONS ADOPTED:

- A. Pursuant to California Government Code Section 50022.1 et seq., and Section 15 of the Charter of the city, Chapter 6.04 of Title 6 (comprised of Sections 6.04.010 through 6.04.330), of the San Mateo County Ordinance Code (as amended on September 13, 2005) is hereby adopted and shall be in effect within the City to the same extent as if set forth in full herein, except as expressly amended by the provisions of this Article.
- B. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of Chapter 6.04, Title 6, of the San Mateo County Ordinance Code (hereinafter referred to as the "Animal Control Ordinance") and the provisions of this Article, the provisions of this Article shall govern."

SECTION 2. Public Hearing on Adoption of Portion of County Code. A public hearing shall be conducted on January 9, 2006, commencing at 7:00 p.m., in the Council Chambers of the City of Redwood City located at 1017 Middlefield Road, Redwood City. Notice of the public hearing shall be published once a week for a period of two successive weeks in the Redwood Daily News, a newspaper of general circulation in Redwood City. The first publication shall be made on or before _____, 2006. Three copies of Chapter 6.04 of Title 6 of the San Mateo County Ordinance Code designated Exhibit A and as amended on September 13, 2005, by Exhibit B are on file in the Office of the City Clerk and are open to public inspection. This constitutes the Animal Control Program for the County to be adopted by the City. It includes provisions pertaining to rabies vaccinations, dog and cat licensing, regulations for dangerous and vicious animals as defined, provisions for inspection of property on which dangerous and vicious animals are kept, impoundment of animals and related administrative hearings, fees and charges for the program, and penalties for violation of animal control regulations.

SECTION 3. The City Council hereby declares that it would have passed this Ordinance word by word, sentence by sentence, paragraph by paragraph, and section by section, and does hereby declare that any provisions of this Ordinance are severable and, if for any reason, any sentence, paragraph or section of this Ordinance shall be held invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining parts of this Ordinance.

(l) Wolf Hybrid means any offspring of domestic dogs bred to wild canids (e.g., wolves or coyotes) and their subsequent generations. (Prior code § 3330.0; Ord. 966, 10/23/51; Ord. 2551, 12/12/78; Ord. 2719, 01/20/81; Ord. 2758, 12/01/81; Ord. 2850, 07/19/83; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87; Ord. 3653, 5/23/95; Ord. 3911, 06/01/99)

6.04.020 Animal control program.

(a) Responsibility. The Animal Control Program is responsible for the enforcement of this ordinance, and the duties of the Director thereof and his officers, agents, and employees shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

- (1) To administer an animal control shelter and keep such records as may be required by law or contract.
- (2) To impound animals which are in violation of this ordinance, or for the safekeeping of the animal to protect its health and welfare.
- (3) To remove and dispose of the carcass of any animal found on any public highway, street, alley, or other public place.
- (4) To quarantine animals under the direction of the County Health Officer.
- (5) To destroy and dispose of animals after due notice to the owner and pursuant to the procedures set forth herein.
- (6) To sell, when appropriate, impounded animals after due notice to the owner.
- (7) To enforce all provisions of this ordinance.

(b) Scope of Authority of Animal Control Officers. Animal Control Officers appointed pursuant to California Civil Code section 607f shall have the authority to issue notices to appear in court pursuant to chapter 5c (commencing with section 853.5 of title 3 of part 2 of the Penal Code of the State of California) for violations of State and local animal control laws. This authority is based on section 607g of the California Civil Code.

(c) Right to Contract for Animal Control Services. The governing body may contract for animal control services to be performed County wide, including cities, provided agreement is made with other concerned jurisdictions. (Prior code § 3330.1; Ord. 966, 10/23/51; Ord. 2551, 12/12/78; Ord. 2758, 12/01/81; Ord. 2850, 07/19/83; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87)

6.04.030 Rabies vaccinations.

Every dog or cat owner, after his/her dog or cat attains the age of four (4) months of age and/or within ten working days of purchasing a license shall procure from a licensed veterinarian, an anti-rabies vaccination to be administered in the manner prescribed or approved by the State of California Department of Public Health. This vaccination shall be obtained prior to issuing a license for the dog or cat. In addition, proof of vaccination shall be provided to the licensing program. (Prior code § 3330.2; Ord. 966, 10/23/51; Ord. 2551, 12/12/78; Ord. 2758, 12/01/81; Ord. 2850, 07/19/83; Ord. 3030, 05/14/85; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87; Ord. 3344, 11/19/91; Ord. 3653, 5/23/95)

6.04.040 Dog and cat licenses.

(a) Requirements. An annual license fee shall be paid for every dog or cat over the age of four (4) months owned or harbored in unincorporated San Mateo County. Said annual license fee shall be first due when the animal reaches four (4) months of age or within 60 days after the dog or cat is acquired, and due on the anniversary date of the original purchase date each year thereafter. New residents shall have sixty (60) days in which to acquire such license. Persons renewing their license shall have thirty (30) days following their due date before being delinquent and having to pay a late penalty. The fee for such license shall be as set forth in section 6.04.290. The fee paid for the licensing of spayed or neutered dogs and cats shall be less than said license fee for unaltered cats or dogs upon presentation of the proper certification. The license fee paid by persons over the age of 60 shall be at a discount. For purposes of this section any surcharge on the license fee imposed under section 6.04.290 shall not be considered part of the license fee. Any person who shall fail to pay such license fee after said fee is due, or said dog or cat is required to be licensed, shall in addition to paying any past due license fee or fees, also pay a penalty in accordance with section 6.04.290. A license shall be obtained, but no license fee shall be payable for the licensing of any dog being raised, trained or used to assist handicapped persons (such as those provided by Canine Companions) including but not limited to any dog which is being trained for guide or hearing purposes by a resident of the County or used for guide or hearing purposes by a handicapped resident of the County and which has come from a guide or hearing dog training facility such as Canine Companions, or for dogs which have served as a member of the armed forces of the United States of America, or any dog used by a local law enforcement agency for the purposes of crime prevention or control. Dog or cat licenses are not transferable between owners; however, if the dog or cat dies and the owner acquires a new dog or cat, the license is transferable to the new dog or cat. The license does not have to be renewed until the original purchase anniversary date. The fee paid for a dog or cat license is not refundable.

(1) Dogs or cats used for diagnostic purposes or research, the use having been approved by the California State Department of Health Services pursuant to section 1666 of the Health and Safety Code.

(3) Dogs or cats owned by veterinarians which are licensed by the State and kept on the premises used by said veterinarians in their practice.

(4) Dogs or cats kept by owners of pet shops for purposes of sale, for circuses, for animal exhibits, or for other enterprises for which a business license has been granted by a local government.

(c) Tags. The Licensing Program shall procure plates or tags which bear the number of the license or registration. A record shall be kept with the name of the owner or possessor together with a description of the dog, cat, or wolf hybrid for which the license or registration is issued and the number of the license or registration, and a tag shall be provided to such person upon payment for such license or registration as provided by this code.

(d) Duplicate Tags. Whenever a tag has been lost or stolen, the owner or possessor of the cat, dog, or wolf hybrid concerned may request a duplicate tag upon payment of the required fee and on making and subscribing to an affidavit of such loss and filing the same with the Licensing Program.

(e) Wearing of Tag Required. The owner of a dog, cat or wolf hybrid for which a license or registration is required shall affix such tag to a suitable collar, which collar shall remain on the dog, cat or wolf hybrid at all times.

(f) Alternative Identification/Implants. Animals with microchip implants or other permanent identification acceptable to Animal Control Services shall not be required to wear a tag or collar. All other licensing and registration requirements of this section shall apply to such cat, dog, or wolf hybrid.

(g) Records. The owner or operator of any kennel, animal breeding facility, pet shop, or any place or establishment where animals are sold shall keep a permanent record of the name, address, and phone number of the purchaser of any dog, cat, or wolf hybrid along with the breed, color, sex, and age of each animal sold or given away and shall forward such information to the Animal Control Services within thirty (30) days thereafter. An Animal Control Officer shall have the right to inspect such records during normal business hours, with forty-eight (48) hours prior notice to the owner or operator.

(h) Veterinarian Responsibilities. Every veterinarian who vaccinates or causes or directs to be vaccinated in the County any dog, cat, or wolf hybrid with anti-rabies vaccine shall certify that such animal has been vaccinated. Every veterinarian shall submit to the licensing authority a copy of the County-approved anti-rabies vaccination form, within ten (10) days of the beginning of each month, for any dog, cat or wolf hybrid which he/she vaccinates or directs to be vaccinated with anti-rabies during the previous month. An Animal Control Officer or Animal Licensing Officer shall have the right to inspect records of rabies vaccinations during normal business hours. (Prior code § 3330.3; Ord. 966, 10/23/51; Ord. 2551, 12/12/78; Ord. 2573, 03/20/79; Ord. 2719, 01/20/81; Ord. 2758, 12/01/81; Ord. 2850, 07/19/83; Ord. 3017, 11/20/84; Ord. 3030, 05/14/85; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87; Ord. 3144, 05/17/88; Ord. 3344, 11/19/91; Ord. 3653, 5/23/95; Ord. 3911, 06/01/99)

6.04.045 Three year licenses for dogs and cats.

Notwithstanding section 6.04.040, a three year license may be obtained for a cat or dog (excluding wolf-hybrids) by submitting to the licensing program adequate proof of a three year rabies vaccination of the animal to be licensed and payment of the applicable fees as set forth in section 6.04.290 of this code. (Ord. 4090, 01/15/02)

6.04.050 Wolf hybrid registration.

(a) Requirements. An annual registration fee shall be paid for every wolf hybrid over the age of four (4) months owned or harbored in unincorporated San Mateo County. Said registration fee shall be first due when the animal reaches four (4) months of age or within sixty (60) days after the animal is acquired, and due on the anniversary date of the original purchase date each year thereafter. All residents shall have sixty (60) days in which to register their wolf hybrid. Persons renewing their registration shall have thirty (30) days following their due date before being delinquent and having to pay a late penalty. The registration fee shall be as set forth in section 6.04.290. The registration fee for spayed or neutered wolf hybrids shall be less than said registration fee for unaltered wolf hybrids. At the time of registration, the wolf hybrid owner must show proof that the animal has been given anti-rabies vaccination by a licensed veterinarian to be administered in the manner prescribed or approved by the State of California Department of Public Health. (Ord. 3653, 5/23/95)

6.04.060 Public protection from dogs.

(a) Every owner or possessor of a dog shall at all times prevent such dog from biting or physically harassing any person engaged in a lawful act and from interfering with the lawful use of public or private property.

(b) Every owner or possessor of a dog shall at all times prevent such dog from causing substantial injury to another domestic animal while such domestic animal is lawfully upon public or private property. Substantial injury means any injury which results in veterinarian treatment or death.

(c) Every owner or possessor of a dog shall desist from commanding or provoking such dog to attack, sic or threaten a person when such person is peaceably and lawfully upon public or private property.

(d) Any person who violates any provision of subsections a, b, or c of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor. A trained dog assisting a peace officer engaged in law enforcement duties is excluded from this section.

(e) Nothing in subsection (a) of this section shall authorize the bringing of a criminal action arising out of bite(s) upon or physical harassment of members of the dog owners or possessors household. (Prior code § 3330.4; Ord. 966, 10/23/51; Ord. 2261, 08/13/74; Ord. 2551, 12/12/78; Ord. 2758, 12/01/81; Ord. 2850, 07/19/83; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87)

6.04.070 Prohibited conduct.

No owner or possessor of any animal shall cause or permit it to do any of the following:

(a) To be upon any public street, sidewalk, park, school ground, any public property, or upon any unenclosed premises in this jurisdiction unless the animal is properly licensed, if such licensing is necessary hereunder, and under the control of the owner by being saddled, harnessed, haltered, or leashed by a substantial chain, lead rope, or leash, which chain, lead rope, or leash shall be continuously held by some competent person capable of controlling such animal.

(b) To trespass upon any private property without the consent of the owner thereof, and to knowingly permit the animal to remain upon the property or to habitually continue to trespass thereon.

(c) To suffer or permit such animal to habitually bark or meow or act in such a manner as to continuously disturb the peace of any citizen or to be a public nuisance.

(d) To be without proper and adequate food, water, shelter, care, and attention as described to in section 597(f) of the Penal Code.

(e) Subsection (a) of this section shall not be applicable to cats. (Prior code § 3330.5; Ord. 966, 10/23/51; Ord. 2551, 12/12/78; Ord. 2758, 12/01/81; Ord. 2850, 07/19/83; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87)

6.04.080 Protection of animals in motor vehicles.

(a) No person, other than an individual actually working a dog or other animal for ranching purposes, shall transport or carry on any public highway or public roadway, any dog or other animal in a motor vehicle unless the dog or other animal is safely enclosed within the vehicle or protected by a cap or container, cage, cross-tether, or other device to prevent the animal from falling from, being thrown from, or jumping from said motor vehicle. As used herein "motor vehicle" includes, without limitation, automobile, pickup truck and trailer.

(b) No person shall leave a dog or other animal in any unattended motor vehicle without adequate ventilation, sanitary conditions, or in such a manner as to subject the animal to extreme temperatures which adversely effect the animal's health or safety.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this ordinance, a violation of subsections (a) or (b) of this section shall be an infraction. Any animal control officer or law enforcement officer who witnesses such a violation shall have the right to impound the animal if, in his opinion, the animal's health or safety is or will be thereby endangered. (Prior code § 3330.5.1; Ord. 2850, 07/19/83; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87)

6.04.090 Release for confinement.

No person other than the owner or person authorized by the owner of the animal shall release any animal from any confinement, vehicle or restraint unless such release is necessary to the immediate health and safety of the animal. This section shall not apply to peace officers or animal control officers. (Prior code § 3330.5.2; Ord. 2850, 07/19/83; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87; Ord. 3344, 11/19/91)

6.04.100 Permit for dangerous animals.

(a) No person shall knowingly keep, have, maintain, sell, trade or let for hire an animal previously identified as dangerous without obtaining a Dangerous Animal Permit from the Animal Control Officer. Violation of this requirement shall constitute a misdemeanor.

(b) Upon receipt of written or oral notification by the Animal Control Officer that an animal is dangerous as defined by this ordinance, the owner and/or possessor shall submit an application for a Dangerous Animal Permit to the Animal Control Officer within five (5) days. The application for a permit shall contain the name of the applicant, applicant's address, the applicant's home and business phone numbers, the address and description of the proposed location of where the animal will be kept, if different from applicant's, a complete description and a photograph of the animal.

(c) If owner and/or possessor of animal disputes identification of an animal as a dangerous animal by the Animal Control Officer they may submit a written request for a hearing to the Animal Control Officer within five (5) working days of notification. Failure of the owner and/or possessor to request a hearing shall result in the animal being declared dangerous and the owner and/or possessor shall be subject to compliance with this section.

(d) The hearing pursuant to this section shall be conducted by the Director of the Environmental Services Agency or a designated representative. Hearings shall be scheduled not more than fifteen (15) working days from the receipt of the request for the hearing and shall be conducted in an informal manner consistent with due process of law. A hearing may be continued if the hearing officer deems it necessary and proper or if the owner, custodian or Animal Control Officer shows good cause. Both the owner of the animal and Animal Control Services may present relevant evidence and call and cross examine witnesses, but the strict rules of evidence shall not be applicable. The Director or designated representative shall render a brief written decision which shall be final within ten (10) days of hearing. Unless the hearing officer otherwise determines, owner or possessor is liable for all costs related to such hearing not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250). The failure to conduct a hearing required by this section shall have no bearing on any criminal prosecution for violation of any provisions of this chapter.

(e) A permit obtained under this section is not transferable. When permittee's address or the location where the animal is kept changes, the permit automatically becomes void and a new application must be submitted to the Animal Control Officer. Violation of this subsection shall be a misdemeanor.

(f) This permit is subject to renewal and approval every year. The permittee shall pay an annual fee for this permit pursuant to the procedures established by the Division of Animal Control Services. If permittee fails to file application for renewal or pay permit fee prior to permit anniversary date the permit automatically becomes void. The fee for such permit shall be as set forth in section 6.04.290. This fee shall not be refundable. (Prior code § 3330.6; Ord. 966, 10/23/51; Ord. 2551, 12/12/78; Ord. 2758, 12/01/81; Ord. 2850, 07/19/83; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87; Ord. 3911, 06/01/99)

EXHIBIT A

(a) The issuance of the permit shall be conditioned upon the animal owner, possessor or permittee promising to adhere to the Rules and Regulations specified in section 6.04.120 and to any reasonable criteria related to the proper care, control, maintenance and use of the animal which the Animal Control Officer shall establish.

(b) The approval of the application can be conditioned upon whether or not the owner, possessor or permittee has a history of complaints filed with the Animal Control Officer for violation of any sections of this ordinance relating to the care and control of animals and/or the owner, possessor or permittee's ability to conform to the provisions of this section. (Prior code § 3330.6.1; Ord. 2758, 12/01/81; Ord. 2850, 07/19/83; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87)

6.04.120 Rules and regulations.

The Division of Animal Control Services hereby establishes that any owner and/or possessor of a dangerous animal shall adhere to the following rules and regulations:

(a) When the animal is off the property of its owner or possessor, it must be restrained with a leash not to exceed four (4) feet in length and shall be under the direct control and supervision of the owner or possessor of such animal. Extraordinary care shall be taken by the owner or possessor to ensure that such leash is sufficient to control the animal in a manner which it will not endanger other persons or animals.

(b) The animal must be maintained so that it is no threat to any mail carrier, sanitation worker, meter person, or other person who has the lawful right to enter the property, either by expressed or implied consent where the animal is maintained.

(c) The animal is not allowed to be upon any unenclosed premise unless it is leashed and controlled by a person capable of controlling such animal. The animal is not allowed to be tethered, tied or staked on any unenclosed premise.

(d) The animal must be kept in a fenced yard, kennel, run or enclosure approved by the Animal Control Officer. The owner shall inspect the fenced yard, kennel, run or enclosure periodically to ensure that it is secure to maintain the animal.

(e) The owner of said dangerous animal shall post the entrances to the property where the animal is kept with a legible sign conspicuous to the public warning persons of the presence of a dangerous animal.

(f) Permittee, owner, or possessor of dangerous animal must advise all members that reside in the same household and on the same premises such conditions as established by the permit for keeping or maintaining said dangerous animal.

(g) The owner shall strictly comply with all local and state laws regarding the care, use, control and maintenance of animals.

(h) In addition to a dog license, the animal shall at all times wear a separate tag issued by the Division of Animal Control Services which designates it as a dangerous animal. All "Dangerous Animals" shall also be microchipped and registered at the Peninsula Humane Society for a fee not to exceed twenty dollars ($20). Payment of said fee is the responsibility of the animal owner(s), and shall be utilized by Peninsula Humane Society to offset the cost of the chip and to maintain the registration program. The owner of any animal designated as "Dangerous" prior to adoption of this subsection shall have ninety (90) days from its onset to have the animal "microchipped" at the Peninsula Humane Society. (Prior code § 3330.6.2; Ord. 2758, 12/01/81; Ord. 2850, 07/19/83; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87; Ord. 3911 06/01/99)

6.04.130 Violation a misdemeanor.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this ordinance, a permittee in violation of section 6.04.110 shall be a misdemeanor. (Prior code § 3330.6.3; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87)

6.04.140 Inspection.

Permits issued pursuant to this ordinance shall provide that, as a condition for issuance, the premises upon which an animal is maintained shall be opened at any reasonable hour for inspection by the Animal Control Officer and that said premises shall be surrendered for inspection by the permittee upon the request of the Animal Control Officer. (Prior code § 3330.6.4; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87)

6.04.150 Inspection fee.

A fee shall be charged for the costs incurred by County for the inspection or reinspection of property. The fee charged shall be paid by the owner or person who has custody of the animal. Such fee shall be set forth in section 6.04.290. (Prior code § 3330.6.4.5; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87; Ord. 3303, 03/12/91)

6.04.160 Revocation of permit.

(a) Subject to the provision of subsection (b), any permit issued pursuant to this section may be revoked if the Animal Control Officer has reasonable cause to believe any of the following to be true:

(1) The permittee, or the person caring for or having control, or his agent has violated any local animal ordinances, or is in violation of any zoning, health and safety or building ordinance or Penal Code section relating to the keeping, care or use of any animals;

(2) The permittee has violated any rules, regulations or conditions adopted by the Division of Animal Control Services or any reasonable criteria established by the Animal Control Officer as necessary to insure the animal will not endanger the peace, health or safety of any person or property; or

(3) The permittee has changed the location of his residence or his place of business or sells, assigns, transfers, donates, leases, or otherwise disposes of the animal for which the permit was issued.

(b) If, after investigation, the Animal Control Program concludes that it is probable that one or more of the above grounds for revocation has occurred, it shall cause written notice thereof to be transmitted by mail to the address of the permittee. Said notice shall specify the grounds of possible revocation of the permit and shall specify a date and time for an informal hearing to be held before an Animal Control Officer. Said date shall be not less than five days subsequent to the date the notice is mailed. After the informal hearing, the Animal Control Officer may modify the terms of the permit or revoke the permit depending upon the permittee's ability to comply with the requirements of this ordinance.

(c) In the event that it is reasonably necessary to protect against a potential or immediate threat or danger to the public or to an animal's health or safety, the Animal Control Program may revoke any permit and impound the animal without a hearing, for a period of not to exceed thirty days.

(d) Upon written or oral notification of the revocation of a permit for a dangerous animal, the owner or possessor of such animal shall within ten (10) calendar days of such notification surrender said animal to the Animal Control Program or provide written proof to the Animal Control Program in the form of declaration(s) under penalty of perjury that such animal has been permanently removed from the County of San Mateo. Failure to surrender such animal or provide the required proof of removal shall be a misdemeanor. (Prior code § 3330.6.5; Ord. 3264, 09/18/90)

6.04.170 Animals to be impounded.

Every animal kept or found under conditions which constitute a violation of this ordinance may be impounded by an Animal Control Officer. With respect to diseased or dangerous animals, the Animal Control Officer or his designee shall have the authority to enter the premises in a lawful manner, and to take up, impound, and safely keep an animal. Upon denial or revocation, of a permit when an owner refuses to apply for a permit or when the Animal Control Officer has reasonable cause to believe that any animal is dangerous the Animal Control Officer may also impound the animal and keep it for such period not to exceed ten (10) days in order to observe, examine and determine whether or not such animal is dangerous. Except as otherwise provided hereunder, an impounded animal may be redeemed by the owner or person entitled to its possession, after payment of the required fees and charges. In the event such animal is not so redeemed within ninety-six (96) hours, it may be either sold or destroyed, at the discretion of the Animal Control Program. (Prior code § 3330.7; Ord. 966, 10/23/51; Ord. 2551, 12/12/78; Ord. 2758, 12/01/81; Ord. 2850, 07/19/83; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87)

6.04.180 Notice to owner of animals impounded.

Within twenty-four (24) hours of the impoundment of any animal, the Animal Control Program shall mail a written notice thereof to the place of business or residence of the owner of the animal if known. The Animal Control Officer shall maintain records of said impoundment pursuant to section 6.04.200. (Prior code § 3330.7.1; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87)

6.04.190 Hearing following impoundment.

Except as otherwise provided, any owner or possessor of any animal impounded pursuant to this ordinance is entitled to a hearing conducted by the Health Officer or by his designees (the "hearing officer") within ten (10) days following such impoundment provided such owner or possessor (the "petitioner") files a written petition therefore with the Animal Control Program within three (3) days following written notice of such impoundment. Unless the hearing officer otherwise determines, such petitioner is liable for all costs related to such impoundment. At the hearing, petitioner and the Animal Control Program may be represented by counsel, may present oral and written evidence, and may cross-examine witnesses. Strict rules of evidence need not apply. Any relevant evidence may be admitted if it is the sort of evidence on which responsible persons are accustomed to rely in the conduct of serious affairs. The decision of the hearing officer or his designee shall be supported by the weight of the evidence. The petitioner shall be given written notice of the decision within fifteen (15) days of the hearing. The hearing officer or his designee according to this ordinance, may rule that the owner or possessor of the animal will lose all rights of ownership and control of the animal; may order that the animal will be destroyed if the animal has bitten or injured a person or domestic animal; may declare an animal to be a Dangerous Animal as defined in this ordinance; and may require the owner or possessor before the animal is released to his custody to obtain a permit under section 6.04.110 and sign an agreement which contains conditions, such as, but not limited to, the following:

- (a) To keep the animal confined on his premises in an enclosure approved by the Health Officer or his designee;
- (b) To keep the animal securely muzzled, leashed and under the control of a person eighteen (18) years of age or older, and who is physically capable of restraining the animal when the animal is off his property;
- (c) To prove financial responsibility by posting a bond or certificate of insurance for an amount not to exceed $100,000;
- (d) To inform, along with the Animal Control Program, any City, County or Postal Service employee, utility company meter readers, and anyone else, who comes onto the property with implied consent or peaceably and lawfully, of the animal's viciousness if the animal is moved.

A violation of any of the terms or conditions of this agreement shall result in the animal being impounded. (Prior code § 3330.7.2; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87)

6.04.200 Record of impounded animals.

The Animal Control Shelter shall keep a record of all animals impounded, which record shall include a description of the animal, the date of its receipt, the date and manner of disposal, the name of the person redeeming or purchasing, and the fees and charges and proceeds of sales received on account thereof, and such additional matters as may be necessary and incidental to implementing this ordinance. Said records shall be kept for five years. (Prior code § 3330.7.3; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87)

6.04.210 Field return fee.

A fee shall be charged for any animal impounded by an Animal Control Officer and returned by the officer in the field to the owner or person who has custody of the animal. The fee charged shall be paid by the owner or person who has custody of the animal. Such fee shall be set forth in section 6.04.290. (Prior code § 3330.7.4; Ord. 3264, 09/18/90)

(a) Except as otherwise provided by this ordinance or by any other law, the owner or person entitled to the control or custody of any animal impounded may, at any time before the sale or other disposition thereof, redeem the same by paying all proper fees assessed by Animal Control Services. Animal Control Services shall issue to the owner duplicate receipts for the amount of the fee paid.

(b) Upon redemption of any impounded unaltered animal, the owner will be required to pay a spay/neuter fee in the amount of $35.00 in addition to the impound fees imposed under section 6.04.290. Such fee shall be refundable upon proof of spay/neuter of the animal within thirty (30) days of the redemption date. Any unaltered animal impounded twice or more within a three-year period shall be altered at the owner's expense prior to redemption. At the option of the owner, required spaying or neutering may be performed by a private veterinarian.

(c) Any owner of an impounded animal subject to mandatory spay/neuter under subsection (b) may petition, in writing, for a hearing conducted by the Animal Control Program Manager or his or her designee within three days following notice of the second impoundment. The hearing shall be held within four working days of such petition and shall be subject to the provisions of section 6.04.190. After the hearing, the hearing officer may require that the animal be spayed or neutered at the owner's expense, unless the hearing officer determines that good cause exists for not requiring that the animal be spayed or neutered. (Prior code § 3330.8; Ord. 966, 10/23/51; Ord. 2551, 12/12/78; Ord. 2758, 12/01/81; Ord. 2850, 07/19/83; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87; Ord. 3344, 11/19/91; Ord. 3653, 5/23/95)

6.04.230 Redemption fees.

Fees for animal shelter services shall be as set forth in section 6.04.290. No animal shall be released to its owner or possessor unless and until such fees are paid in full. (Prior code § 3330.8.1; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87)

6.04.240 License fee to be paid upon redemption.

No impounded dog may be redeemed unless and until its license fee, and applicable penalty has been paid. (Prior code § 3330.9; Ord. 966, 10/23/51; Ord. 2551, 12/12/78; Ord. 2758, 12/01/81; Ord. 2850, 07/19/83; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87)

6.04.250 Epidemics.

The County Department of Health Services may determine and declare that rabies or other contagious diseases are epidemic or that other health and safety hazards exist among dogs or other animals within the County. Upon the making of such a declaration, the County Health Officer shall prepare and promulgate such orders, rules, and regulations as are necessary for appropriate control of all the animals concerned within the County. Said rules and regulations of the County Health Officer may include, but are not limited to, impoundment, quarantine, vaccination, or destruction. It shall be the duty of Animal Control Officers to assist the County Health Officer in carrying out such rules and regulations. (Prior code § 3330.10; Ord. 966, 10/23/51; Ord. 2551, 12/12/78; Ord. 2758, 12/01/81; Ord. 2850, 07/19/83; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87)

6.04.260 Bite reporting requirements.

It is the duty of every person having knowledge that any animal has bitten a human being to report that fact immediately to the County Department of Health Services, Animal Control Program or to the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction. (Prior code § 3330.11; Ord. 966, 10/23/51; Ord. 1212, 04/09/57; Ord. 2551, 12/12/78; Ord. 2758, 12/01/81; Ord. 2850, 07/19/83; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87)

6.04.270 Quarantine fee.

A fee shall be charged for the costs incurred by County for the quarantine of animals including but not limited to investigation, inspection of property, confinement, examination and release of the animal from quarantine. The fee charged shall be paid by the owner or person who has custody of the animal. Such fee shall be in addition to the actual costs of the Health Officer or his designee in housing, feeding and otherwise caring for a quarantined animal. Such fee shall be set forth in section 6.04.290. (Prior code § 3330.11.1; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87)

6.04.280 Service fees.

Animal Control Service fees for redemption of impounded animals, relinquishment, adoption, disposal, abatement, rescue, veterinary treatment or other services not specified in section 6.04.290 shall be reviewed by the Director of Environmental Services Agency or his/her designee for reimbursement of costs. The Director of the Environmental Services Agency or his/her designee shall have the authority to determine the fee charged for said services. The fee charged shall be paid by the owner or person who has custody of animal(s) for which said services have been provided. (Prior code § 3330.11.2; Ord. 3264, 09/18/90; Ord. 3911, 06/01/99)

(Prior code § 3330.16; Ord. 966, 10/23/51; Ord. 2262, 08/13/74; Ord. 2551, 12/12/78; Ord. 2758, 12/01/81; Ord. 2850, 07/19/83; Ord. 3030, 05/14/85; Ord. 3123, 09/15/87; Ord. 3344, 11/19/91)

6.04.340 Amnesty period and waiver of late penalties for payment of license fees.

(a) An amnesty period consisting of the dates June 21, 1994 through June 30, 1994, is hereby declared within San Mateo County for payment of cat and dog license fees and for compliance with section 6.04.040 of the San Mateo County Ordinance Code, as provided herein.

(b) During the amnesty period, applicants for cat and dog licenses shall not be assessed any late penalty fee or any other penalty for failure to earlier obtain such license or pay any applicable license fee, notwithstanding sections 6.04.040 and 6.04.290 of the San Mateo County Ordinance Code. The Board hereby waives any applicable late penalty; such waiver to apply only to those persons obtaining the required cat and/or dog licenses in person during the stated amnesty period.

(c) Applicants for cat and/or dog licenses are eligible for waiver of late penalty fees for any licenses obtained in person between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., June 21, 1994 through June 30, 1994, at either the Peninsula Humane Society in San Mateo or the office of San Mateo County Animal Control in Redwood City, or between the hours of 1:00 and 4:00 p.m. at the Coastside Community Center in Half Moon Bay on Saturday, June 25, 1994. (Ord. 3570, 05/24/94)

EXHIBIT B

SECTION 1. Section 6.04.010 of the Redwood City Municipal Code is hereby amended by revising subsections A, B, D, E, F, I, and adding new subsections J, K and L to read as follows:

"6.04.010 Definitions. For the purposes of this chapter:

J. "Severe injury" means any physical injury directly caused by an animal attack that consists of muscle tears, multiple punctures, broken bones or disfiguring lacerations, or which requires multiple sutures or corrective or cosmetic surgery.

K. "Vicious Animal" means any animal, except a trained dog assisting a peace officer engaged in law enforcement duties, which meets any or all of the following criteria:

(1) Any animal previously designated as "dangerous," that after investigation by an Animal Control Officer and/or Peace Officer is found under conditions which constitute a violation of this chapter or applicable dangerous animal permit and which demonstrates a significant danger to the public health or safety;

(2) Any animal seized under section 599aa of the Penal Code and/or upon the sustaining of a conviction of the owner or caretaker under subdivision (a) of the Section 597.5 of the Penal Code;

(3) Any animal which inflicts severe injury on or kills a human being or another animal;

(4) Any animal which has engaged in any aggressive behavior which demonstrates that the animal represents a clear and present substantial danger to the public health or safety and that due to substantial risk to the public health or safety it is unlikely that the animal could be safely maintained under a dangerous animal permit.

SECTION 3. Section 6.04.400 .080 of the Redwood City Municipal Code is hereby deleted in its entirety. A new Section 6.04.400 .080 is added to read as follows:

"6.04.080 Dangerous animal permit required.

(a) No person shall knowingly keep, have, maintain, sell, trade or let for hire an animal designated under the provisions of this chapter as dangerous without obtaining a Dangerous Animal Permit from the Animal Control Officer. The animal owner shall comply with all conditions of the Dangerous Animal Permit including but not limited to all requirements of Section 6.04.100 of this Chapter. Any animal which is determined to be dangerous under this chapter and for which a permit has not been obtained shall be surrendered to an Animal Control Officer for appropriate disposition including humane destruction.

(b) If an Animal Control Officer or Peace officer has investigated and determined that an animal is dangerous, the Animal Control Officer and/or Peace Officer shall deliver written notice of such determination to the owner of the animal. Should the animal pose a threat to the public health and safety, an Animal Control Officer may immediately impound the animal.

(c) If, after investigation by an Animal Control officer or Peace officer, that officer determines that probable cause does not exist to believe the animal is dangerous, any interested person may appeal that determination by submitting within five (5) calendar days of the decision a written request to the Animal Control Officer or Peace Officer for a hearing and paying the required fee. The hearing shall be conducted according to the procedures set forth in Section 6.04.095 of this chapter.

(d) In determining whether or not an animal shall be declared dangerous, the Animal Control Officer, Peace Officer or Hearing Officer appointed pursuant to section 6.04.095, may consider, as a mitigating factor or factors, whether, at the time of the injury, attack or molestation, the person or animal suffering the injury, attack or molestation:

(3) Threatened or committed an unjustified attack or assault against the owner, caretaker or person in control of the animal;

(e) Upon receipt of written or oral notification by the Animal Control Officer and/or Peace Officer that an animal is dangerous as defined in this Chapter, the owner shall submit an application for a Dangerous Animal Permit to the Animal Control Officer within five (5) calendar days. The application for a permit shall contain the name of the applicant, applicant's address, the applicant's home and business phone numbers, the address and description of the proposed location of where the animal will be kept, if different from applicant's, a complete description and a photograph of the animal. The permit shall contain all of the requirements of Section 6.04.100 and any additional conditions or requirements deemed necessary by the Animal Control Officer or Peace Officer to protect the public health or safety.

(f) Should the owner of the animal wish to contest the dangerous animal designation, the owner may request a hearing, to be conducted according to the procedures set forth in Section 6.04.095 of this Chapter. The owner shall submit a written request for a Dangerous Animal Hearing to the Animal Control Officer and/or Peace Officer within five (5) calendar days of written notification by the Animal Control Officer and/or Peace Officer that the animal has been declared dangerous. Should the owner not submit a request for a hearing within five (5) calendar days of notification, the hearing process shall be deemed waived by the owner, and the dangerous animal declaration will be considered final by the County Director of the Environmental Services Agency, or the Town. In that event, the County Director of the Environmental Services Agency or the Town may allow the dangerous animal permit to be issued without a hearing. Unless a dangerous animal permit is immediately obtained, the animal shall be impounded at the owner's expense pending appropriate disposition as determined by the Animal Control Officer and/or Peace Officer."

SECTION 4. A new Section 6.04.085 is hereby added to Chapter 6.04 to read as follows:

"6.04.085 Declaration of vicious animals.

(a) No person shall keep, have, maintain, sell, trade or let for hire an animal which has been designated as vicious pursuant to this Chapter.

(b) If an Animal Control Officer and/or Peace Officer has investigated and determined that an animal is vicious, the Animal Control Officer and/or Peace Officer shall deliver to the owner of the animal written notice of that determination. The Animal Control Officer and/or Peace Officer shall immediately impound or cause to be impounded the animal and shall cause the animal to be humanely destroyed unless the owner requests a hearing under subsection (c) of this section.

(c) If the owner of the animal disputes the designation of an animal as a vicious animal by the Animal Control Officer and/or Peace Officer he may submit a written request for a hearing to the Animal Control Officer and/or Peace Officer within five (5) calendar days of notification. Such hearing shall be conducted according to the procedures set forth in Section 6.04.095 of this Chapter. Failure of the owner to request a hearing shall result in the animal being declared vicious and humanely destroyed. The vicious animal declaration will be considered final by the County Director of the Environmental Services Agency, or the City.

(d) If, after investigation by an Animal Control Officer or Peace Officer, that officer determines that probable cause does not exist to believe that the animal is vicious, any interested person may appeal that determination by submitting within five (5) calendar days of the decision a written request to the Animal Control Officer or Peace Officer for a hearing and paying the required fee.

(e) In determining whether or not an animal shall be declared vicious, the Animal Control Officer, Peace Officer or Hearing Officer may consider, as a mitigating factor or factors, whether at the time of the injury, attack or behavior, the person or animal suffering the injury, attack or behavior for which the animal is being determined vicious:

SECTION 5. Section 6.04.090 of the Redwood City Municipal Code is hereby deleted. A new Section 6.04.090 is added to read as follows:

(a) No permit obtained under this section is transferable. If the owner's address or the location where the animal is kept changes or the owner transfers ownership of the animal, the permit shall become null and void and an application for a new permit must be submitted to the Animal Control Officer.

(b) A permit issued under this chapter is subject to renewal and approval each year and is subject to conditions and requirements existing as of the date of renewal. The permittee shall pay an annual fee for this permit pursuant to the procedures established by the Division of Animal Control Services. If permittee fails to file an application for renewal or pay the permit fee prior to the permit anniversary date the permit shall automatically become void. The fee for such permit shall be as set forth in section 6.04.240. This fee shall not be refundable.

(c) If the owner or permittee has a history of multiple violations of this Chapter 6.04 or of the conditions of any previously issued dangerous animal permit, the Animal Control Officer or Hearing Officer may deny the permit and impound the animal for appropriate disposition as determined by the Animal Control Officer or Hearing Officer."

SECTION 6. Section 6.04.095 is hereby added to Chapter 6.04 of the Redwood City Municipal Code to read as follows:

"6.04.095 Hearing procedures.

(a) The hearing pursuant to this section shall be conducted by a hearing officer or designated representative appointed by the Director of the Environmental Services Agency. The hearings shall be scheduled no less than five (5) working days and no more than fifteen (15) working days from the receipt of the request for the hearing unless agreed upon by the involved Animal Control Officer or Peace Officer and the animal owner. A hearing may be continued if the Hearing Officer deems it necessary and proper or if the owner, or Animal Control Officer and/or Peace Officer shows good cause.

(b) The hearing shall be conducted in an informal manner consistent with due process of law. Both the owner of the animal and Animal Control Officer and/or Peace Officer may be represented by counsel. The parties may present relevant evidence and call and cross-examine witnesses. The strict rules of evidence shall not be applicable. Any relevant evidence may be admitted if it is the sort of evidence on which responsible persons are accustomed to rely in the conduct of serious affairs. The hearing shall be tape-recorded and all documentary evidence submitted at the hearing shall be preserved. Any party may arrange for a court reporter to be present. Any party desiring the presence of a court reporter shall make all necessary arrangements and shall be responsible for payment of all costs.

(c) The Hearing Officer may exclude disorderly or disruptive persons from the hearing or make other orders as necessary to ensure the fair and orderly conduct of the hearing.

(d) The Hearing Officer may decide all issues for or against the owner of the animal should the owner fail to appear at the hearing.

(e) Within five (5) working days of the hearing, the Hearing Officer or designated representative shall render a brief written decision, which decision shall be final at the administrative level. The written decision shall be mailed to the parties by certified mail and include a declaration or proof of mailing which includes the date on which the decision was mailed to the parties.

(f) Unless the hearing officer for good cause otherwise determines, the owner of the animal is liable for all costs related to such hearing not to exceed three-hundred and fifty dollars ($350).

(g) The failure to conduct a hearing required by this section shall have no bearing on any criminal prosecution for violation of any provisions of this chapter.

(h) In the case of animals determined by an Animal Control Officer or Peace Officer to be dangerous or vicious, the hearing officer may decide any or all of the following:

1) That the animal be designated "vicious" and the owner of the animal lose all rights of ownership and control of the animal and the animal shall be humanely destroyed. An animal designated as vicious will be held at the animal shelter for a minimum of five (5) calendar days from the date of the hearing officer's decision, after which time it may be humanely destroyed without further notice to the Owner;

2) That the animal be designated "dangerous" and the owner must apply for and obtain a dangerous animal permit as provided by this chapter within five calendar days of receipt of the decision letter in order to maintain the animal and the owner must comply with all mandatory dangerous animal permit rules and regulations as defined in Section 6.04.100;

3) That the dangerous animal permit shall contain additional permit conditions to supplement the mandatory dangerous animal permit rules and regulations as defined in Section 6.04.100, including, but not limited to, the following:

i) That the owner keep the animal muzzled at all times when the animal is off the owner's property;

ii) That the owner prove financial responsibility by posting a bond or certificate of insurance for an amount of $1,000,000 per animal as determined by the Hearing Officer;

iii) That the owner provide private behavioral and obedience training to the animal, at the owner's expense and within the time set forth by the Hearing Officer following the issuance of a dangerous animal permit. Proof of participation, a report of behavioral assessment, and/or a certificate of satisfactory completion from an animal behaviorist or organization approved by the Hearing Officer shall be provided to the Animal Control Officer within seven calendar days following any required training;

iv) That the owner comply with any other permit requirement the Hearing Officer deems necessary to protect the public health or safety;

v) That the owner reimburse the victim for the victim's medical expenses or the victim animal's veterinary expenses;

vi) Pursuant to section 6.04.130 of this Chapter, that the dangerous animal permit be modified as ordered by the Hearing Officer, or revoked and the animal humanely destroyed."

SECTION 7. Section 6.04.100 of the Redwood City Municipal Code is deleted, A new Section 6.04.100 is added to read as follows:

"6.04.100 Mandatory dangerous animal permit requirements. Any owner of a dangerous animal shall insure compliance with the following rules and regulations which shall be mandatory requirements for any dangerous animal permit:

(a) When the animal is off the property of its owner, the owner must ensure that the animal is restrained with a leash not to exceed four (4) feet in length and having a minimum tensile strength of 300 pounds and shall be under the direct control and supervision of the owner or a person of such age, size and strength as can easily control such animal. Extraordinary care shall be taken by the owner to ensure that such restraint is sufficient to control the animal in a manner which it will not endanger other persons or animals.

(c) The owner shall ensure that the animal is not kept upon any unenclosed premise unless it is leashed and controlled by a person capable of controlling such animal. The owner shall ensure that the animal is not tethered, tied or staked at any unenclosed premise. The owner shall ensure that the animal is not kept in a house or structure when the windows or doors are open or screen doors are the only obstacle preventing the animal from exiting the structure.

(d) The owner shall ensure that the animal is kept in a fenced yard, kennel, run or enclosure approved by the Animal Control Officer or Peace Officer. The owner shall ensure that all structures used to confine the animals are locked with a key or combination lock when such animals are within the structure. The owner shall regularly inspect the fenced yard, kennel, run or enclosure to ensure that it is secure to maintain the animal.

(e) The owner shall open premises upon which an animal is maintained at any reasonable hour for inspection by the Animal Control Officer or Peace Officer and said premises shall be surrendered for inspection by the owner upon the request of the Animal Control Officer or Peace Officer. The owner shall pay a fee for the costs incurred by County for the inspection or reinspection of property. Such fee shall be set forth in section 6.04.240.

(f) The owner of the dangerous animal shall post the entrances to the property where the animal is kept with a legible sign conspicuous to the public warning persons of the presence of a dangerous animal. The owner of the dangerous animal shall obtain an approved sign from the Animal Control Program for a non-refundable fee and shall surrender such sign in the event of the revocation of the permit, death of animal, or approved relocation of the animal, or upon any other reasonable demand by an Animal Control Officer.

(g) The owner of any dangerous animal must advise all members who reside in the same household and on the same premises of the conditions established by the permit for keeping or maintaining said dangerous animal.

(h) The owner shall strictly comply with all local and state laws regarding the care, use, control and maintenance of animals.

(i) In addition to a license, the owner shall ensure that the animal shall at all times wear a separate tag issued by the Division of Animal Control Services which designates it as a dangerous animal. The owner shall ensure that the dangerous animal be microchipped and registered with the Animal Control Program for a fee specified by Section 6.04.240 within thirty (30) calendar days from the date the permit was issued. The animal owner shall be responsible for payment of said fee which shall be utilized by the Animal Control Program to offset the cost of the chip and to maintain the registration program.

(j) The owner shall have the animal spayed or neutered by a licensed veterinarian, at the owner's expense, within fifteen (15) calendar days from the date the permit was issued. The owner shall present written proof to the Animal Control Officer that the surgery was performed. In the event an animal cannot be safely spayed or neutered due to medical reasons, the owner shall present written proof from a licensed practicing veterinarian to the Animal Control Officer that said animal cannot be spayed or neutered.

(k) The owner may not sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of such animal to another County or City without notifying Animal Control at least twenty-four (24) hours before such sale, transfer or disposal. Animal Control will notify the proper authorities of the jurisdiction to which the dangerous animal is transferred. Should the owner of a dangerous animal wish to transfer ownership of the animal to another individual within San Mateo County, the new owner must submit to a property inspection, apply for and obtain a new dangerous animal permit, pay all requisite fees, and comply with all provisions of this chapter and the requirements of the permit.

(m) The owner shall not allow any animal designated "dangerous" as the result of aggression against human(s) to be kept on property or within a household in which a juvenile person under the age of eighteen resides.

(n) The owner of a dangerous animal must notify the Animal Control Officer of the animal's death within twenty-four (24) hours and shall produce the animal's body for verification upon request. The owner of a dangerous animal must notify the Animal Control Officer immediately in the event the animal becomes lost or stolen.

(o) The owner must pay all permit and property inspection fees as described in section 6.04.240 of this chapter.

(p) The owner shall comply with any other permit conditions or requirements imposed pursuant to section 6.04.095 or 6.04.100."

SECTION 8. Section 6.04.110 of the Redwood City Municipal Code is hereby revoked. A new Section 6.04.110 is added to the Redwood City Municipal Code to read as follows:

"6.04.110 Misdemeanor violations.

(a) A person violating any provision of this Chapter shall be guilty of an infraction except as otherwise specifically provided.

(b) A person violating any provision of subsection (a) of section 6.04.100 or subsection (a) of section 6.04.085 of this Chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor."

SECTION 9. A new Section 6.04.115 is hereby added to the Redwood City Municipal Code to read as follows:

"6.04.115 Possession of Animals after Revocation of Dangerous Animal Permit or Vicious Declaration.

No person who has been determined to be in possession or ownership of a vicious animal or a dangerous animal for which a permit has been revoked under this Chapter shall be granted any dangerous animal permit for a period of three years following such determination or revocation."

SECTION 10. A new Section 6.04.125 is hereby added to the Redwood City Municipal Code to read as follows:

"Section 6.04.125. Inspection fee.

A fee shall be charged for the costs incurred by County for the inspection or reinspection of property. The fee charged shall be paid by the owner or person who has custody of the animal. Such fee shall be set forth in section 6.04.240."

SECTION 11. Section 6.04.130 of the Redwood City Municipal Code is hereby revoked. A new Section 6.04.130 is hereby added to the Redwood City Municipal Code to read as follows:

"6.04.130 Revocation or modification of permit.

(a) Subject to the provision of subsection (b), any permit issued pursuant to this section may be revoked or modified by the inclusion of additional requirements or otherwise, if the Animal Control Officer has reasonable cause to believe any of the following to be true:

(1) The dangerous animal owner or any person the owner has allowed to have possession of the animal has violated any local animal ordinances, or is in violation of any zoning, health and safety or building ordinance or Penal Code section relating to the keeping, care or use of any animals;

(2) The owner or any person the owner has allowed to have possession of the animal has violated any rules, regulations or conditions of this Chapter including but not limited to dangerous animal permit conditions, or any requirement imposed by the Animal Control Officer,

Peace Officer or Hearing Officer as necessary to insure the animal will not endanger the peace, health or safety of any person or property; or

(3) The owner has changed the location of his residence or his place of business or sells, assigns, transfers, donates, leases, or otherwise disposes of the animal for which the permit was issued.

(b) In the event that it is reasonably necessary to protect against a threat to the health or safety of the public, or of any animal, the Animal Control Officer or Peace Officer may impound or cause to be impounded the animal while an investigation is taking place.

(c) If, after investigation, the Animal Control Officer or Peace Officer concludes that it is probable that one or more of the above grounds for revocation or modification of the permit has occurred, it shall cause written notice thereof to be transmitted to the owner. Said notice shall specify the grounds of revocation or modification of the permit. Should the owner of the animal wish to contest the revocation or modification of the permit, (s)he may request a hearing to be held before a hearing officer not previously involved with the permit issuance or investigation, as designated by the Director of the Environmental Services Agency within five (5) calendar days of receiving the notice of intent to modify or revoke permit. Said hearing date shall be not less than five (5) working days or more than 15 working days subsequent to the date the request for hearing is received. The hearing shall be conducted as set forth in section 6.04.095 of this Chapter. After the hearing, the Officer conducting the hearing may modify the terms of the permit or revoke the permit depending upon the permittee's ability to comply with the requirements of this Chapter and to control the animal so that the health, safety and property of the public are protected.

(d) Upon written or oral notification by the Animal Control Officer, or Hearing Officer if a hearing was held, of any modifications to a dangerous animal permit, the owner shall immediately comply with such modified permit requirements.

(e) Upon written or oral notification by the Animal Control Officer, or Hearing Officer if a hearing was held, of the revocation of a permit for a dangerous animal, the owner of such animal shall within two (2) calendar days of such notification surrender said animal to an Animal Control Officer to be humanely destroyed or provide written proof to an Animal Control Officer in the form of declaration(s) under penalty of perjury that such animal has been permanently removed from the County of San Mateo and declaring the new location or new address where the animal is to be kept."

SECTION 12. Section 6.04.140 of the Redwood City Municipal Code is hereby revoked. A new Section 6.04.140 of the Redwood City Municipal Code is hereby added to read as follows:

(a) Every animal kept or found by an Animal Control Officer or Peace Officer under conditions which constitute a violation of this Chapter or other state or local law may be impounded or caused to be impounded by an Animal Control Officer or Peace Officer. The animal's owner shall be charged with all costs incurred or fees applicable with respect to such impoundment.

(b) When the Animal Control Officer or Peace Officer has reasonable cause to believe that any animal is dangerous or vicious the Animal Control Officer or Peace Officer may also impound or cause to be impounded the animal and keep it for such period not to exceed fifteen (15) days in order to observe, examine and determine whether or not such animal is dangerous or vicious.

(c) Any animal subject to dangerous or vicious animal proceedings may be impounded at the discretion of the Animal Control Officer or Peace Officer pending notice, hearings and determinations hereunder and until any required permit is obtained.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in this Chapter or state law, an impounded animal may be redeemed by the owner, after payment of the required fees and charges and compliance with licensing requirements. In the event such animal is not so redeemed within the time set forth by state law, it may be disposed of in the manner determined by an Animal Control Officer."

SECTION 13. Section 6.04.150 of the Redwood City Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

"6.04.150 Notice of impounded animals.

Within twenty-four (24) hours of the impoundment of any animal, the Animal Control Officer shall mail a written notice thereof to the place of business or residence of the owner of the animal if known. In the event the animal may not be redeemed as provided by subsection (d) of section 6.04.140, the owner may request a hearing under section 6.04.095, subsections (a) – (g) of this Chapter or applicable state law. The Animal Control Officer shall maintain records of said impoundment pursuant to section 6.04.170."

SECTION 14. Section 6.04.170 of the Redwood City Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

"6.04.170 Record of impounded animals.

The Animal Control ~~shelter~~ Program shall keep a record of all animals impounded, which record shall include a description of the animal, the date of its receipt, the date and manner of disposal, the name of the person redeeming or purchasing, and the fees and charges and proceeds of sales received on account thereof, and such additional matters as may be necessary and incidental to implementing this ordinance. Said records shall be kept for ~~five~~ four years."

SECTION 15. Section 6.04.180 of the Redwood City Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

"6.04.180. Redemption.

Except as otherwise provided by this ordinance or by any other law, the owner or person entitled to the control or custody of any animal impounded may, at any time before the sale or other disposition thereof, redeem the same by paying all proper fees assessed by the Animal Control Services. Animal Control ~~program~~ Services shall issue to the owner duplicate receipts for the amount of the fee paid."

SECTION 16. Section 6.04.190 of the Redwood City Municipal Code is hereby revoked.

SECTION 17. That the City Council hereby declares that it would have passed this Ordinance word by word, sentence by sentence, paragraph by paragraph, and section by section, and does hereby declare that any provisions of this Ordinance are severable and, if for any reason any word, sentence, paragraph or section of this Ordinance shall be held invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining parts of this Ordinance.

SECTION 18. This Ordinance shall be posted in at least three public places according to law and shall take effect and be in force from and after 30 days after its passage and adoption.
