QUALIFICATIONS

1. Are you currently serving on a board, committee or commission? Yes - Senior Affairs Commission
2. Are you applying for re-appointment? Yes
3. Please provide a brief description of why you are seeking this appointment: I am seeking this appointment because I am interested in senior problems and feel we as a commission have more to accomplish. Housing, transportation, medical care and proper nutrition are just a few of the continual needs.
The City of Redwood City is constantly working to address these concerns however the city has many broader issues. Senior Affairs can help support the city's plans.

4. Please describe your qualifications, training and experience related to the interests and work of the board, committee and commission appointment you seek: My university study as well as 45 years of work, was health related. I had to interact with many people.

Caring for my aged parents before their death taught me much of senior needs.

5. Please list any community organizations or activities to which you belong or in which you have participated: ① Elementary, High School and Church

Committees ② Community Advisory Council and Community Task Force of Sequoia Hospital ③ CHW Fall
Prevention Committee

SUPPLEMENTAL QUESTIONS

1. How many Redwood City board, committee or commission meetings have you attended in the past year? 16-18

2. How many Redwood City Council meetings have you attended in the past year? 2-3

3. What issue(s) would you like to bring to the board, committee or commission you have selected the issues I would bring to Senior Affairs would be housing, transportation and medical care.

I strongly feel seniors should stay in their homes when possible. Social support is very important. Our two senior centers, Veteran's Memorial and Fair Oaks, are working to supply this.

Selected as your Second Choice (optional) _____

4. Boards, committees and commissions act in an advisory capacity to the Council. Some board, committee and commission activities and actions do not go to the Council. Other actions will serve as advice to the Council. The Council has the responsibility and the duty to make its decisions based on all the facts, and is not bound by recommendations from any source. Would you feel discouraged if the Council did not abide by the recommendations of your board, committee or commission? No I would not be discouraged but possibly disappointed at times. I realize we are purely advisory and Council has many challenges and must set priorities.
