

Jeff Gee, Councilmember
City of Redwood City
January 2016

Jeff Gee was elected to his first term on the City Council in Redwood City in 2009. Jeff served as Redwood City's Mayor in 2014 and 2015, and served as Vice Mayor in 2012 and 2013. In November of 2013, Jeff was re-elected to a second term on the City Council and he was unanimously selected by his City Council colleagues to serve as the Mayor.

Jeff's City Council committee appointments have included the Audit Committee, Economic Development, Personnel Committee and several ad hoc committees, including High Speed Rail, Bayfront Flooding, and US 101/Woodside Road.

Jeff also represents the City of Redwood City, and San Mateo County by serving on several regional public agency committees and boards, including his appointments as a Director and Past-Chairman of the SamTrans Board of Directors; a Director on the Joint Powers Board (JPB) which oversees CalTrain, a Director on the Transbay Joint Power Authority, immediate Past-Chairman of the San Francisco Airport Community Roundtable; and Chairman of the Peninsula Traffic Congestion Relief Alliance. In all of these regional roles, Jeff is focused on reducing traffic congestion, protecting the environment and air quality, and ensuring that Redwood City and San Mateo County's local economy is vibrant and that the quality of life for residents is protected and enhanced.

Jeff has also served as the Chairman of the Redwood City/San Mateo County Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors. Jeff was honored as the 2006 Chamber of Commerce Person of the Year for his continued work to attract and retain good jobs to Redwood City and support local businesses downtown and throughout the city.

Jeff is also involved as a volunteer with many Redwood City organizations, including his work as the Past President, Treasurer, and Director of the Redwood Shores Community Association; President of the Shore at California Bayside Homeowner's Association; Member, Cañada College Community Council; the Advisory Board for the Peninsula Conflict Resolution Center; and serves as a Trustee for Palo Alto University.

Jeff also serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors for Broadway By the Bay (BBB). Broadway By the Bay is the only major musical theatre company between San Francisco and Palo Alto producing full-scale musical productions using local talents.

As a Board Member of the Ring the Bell Fund, Jeff raises much-needed funds for Peninsula public schools to have monitored fire alarms connected to their associated fire departments or fire districts, and to have sprinklers in the schools to maximize safety and minimize property damage.

Professionally, Jeff is a Vice President/General Manager with Swinerton Management & Consulting in San Francisco. He is a licensed architect, and is a graduate of California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo, with a Bachelor of Science degree in Architecture. He is married, and has two children.
