

School-Age Child Care in Redwood City

Licensed before- and/or after-school child care programs for five- to twelve-year-old children operate at or near the Redwood City public schools listed below. Care at private schools is license-exempt. Parents can call each program listed for specific information on fees, hours, and ages served, and to make an appointment to visit. Programs indicated with  have State-subsidized spaces for income-eligible families; call for details. In addition, some licensed family child care home providers will pick up children at school and provide afternoon and school holiday care; call 655-6777 for referrals.

Other after-school academic support & recreation programs, and sports activities are available on many campuses, including Fair Oaks, Ford, Garfield, Gill, Hawes, Hoover, Roosevelt, Selby Lane, and Taft. Inquire at the school office.
