The Floating Community of Sausalito
"Little Sausalito"?
WHAT DO PEOPLE WANT?
1. KEEP A FLOATING COMMUNITY IN THE INNER HARBOR
2. ADAPTIVE DEVELOPMENT
3. CONNECT TO DOWNTOWN
4. PRESERVE OUR HISTORY
5. PRESERVE OUR WATERWAYS
Floating Communities
Sausalito House Boat Wars
Docktown Marina
Docktown Marina
Affordable Housing

Sausalito FH - $250,000-$2,000,000+
San Francisco Condos - $1,000,000+

Docktown FH $10,000-$400,000
One Marina Condos - $700,000-$1,000,000
Destination
8th Annual Show
Artists of Issaquah
Saturday, April 24, 2010
11 am - 5 pm
Issaquah Dock, Sausalito

415 331 2212
artistsofissaquah.com
Eco-Friendly Development
History
This court house, of brick with white stone facings, was designed by William Crichton. Together with a stable and lock-up, it was built by W. Grey and opened in 1890. The lock-up was incorporated into the extensions built in 1999. Cases included Maori Land Court sessions. All hearings ceased in 1951.
Protect the Water
First Annual
Romancing the Creek
Redwood Creek at Redwood City, California

February 13, 2010
80 Volunteers retrieved 3,950 pounds of trash in 2 hours
SUMMARY

- Floating Community
- Destination
- History
- Protect the water
FLOATING HOME TOURS

AT DOCKTOWN
Sunday, September 15, 2013
10 am to 12 pm
For IHPP Task Members

AT SAUSALITO
Saturday, September 21, 2013
11 am to 4 pm
$35 in advance