

The Redwood City Public Library inspires learning through innovative and visionary programming and services—

literacy programs, support for school success, access to technology, safe, inviting spaces for youth and families, and gathering places that connect members of the community with a love of reading and learning.

Libraries are “indoor parks” with many learning, recreational, and cultural activities for all ages, incomes, and cultures, and a primary way of building community by promoting community participation and volunteerism.

Core Services

- Welcoming, safe, and accessible public spaces, with a high number of open hours, a customer-centered staff, a large number of books and other materials, and many weekly programs.
- Access to computers, both wireless and on 160 public computers.
- Services to families and youth, helping new readers and families prepare for school, and helping those in school to succeed.
- The five Project READ literacy programs, meeting the diverse literacy needs of our community.

A free Library card is available to anyone with proof of California residence. Children aged fourteen and under require a parent's signature on the application.

At the Redwood City Public Library, you have a generous checkout limit of up to 50 items! Most can be renewed online, by phone (650.638.0399) up to five times, or in person, if there are no "holds" on the materials.

When you're ready to return your items, you can do so at any public library or community college library in San Mateo County.

Accidents can sometimes happen, so you should know that if you lose materials you'll need to pay the replacement cost.

You can reserve an item online or at the Library for no cost. Manage your Library account online, check account status, see due dates, renew items, sign up for email and text notifications, pay fines, and more at redwoodcity.org/library

As a friendly reminder we'll send courtesy email notifications two days before your item is due. Once overdue, we can notify you by email, telephone, or mail. Don't let overdue items sit too long – after 30 days, we'll have to send you a bill. Unresolved accounts of $40 or more may be referred to a collection agency and an additional fee of $10 will be assessed.

Books and non-DVD items have a loan period of three weeks; DVDs have a loan period of one week. Overdue items on adult accounts are assessed a 25c per day fee for adult material and 15c per day fee for juvenile material. Children's and teen accounts do not accrue late fees.
